Will Hear Psychologist

Walter J. Raine, PH.D., Clinical Psychologist at the UCLA Neuropsychiatric Institute will be guest speaker at the meeting of the South Bay Chapter of Hadassah on Tuesday, March 2 at 8 p.m. at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Raine, 1461 Second St., Manhattan Beach. Dr. Raine's topic will be "Jewish Family Life as Viewed by a Family Therapist." The public is invited to hear the talk. For further information Mrs. Max Stern, president, or Mrs. Raine may be called.

Guild Plans Agenda Bay Harbor Hospital

At the board meeting of the Bay Harbor Hospital Guild, reports from chairman and plans for the Candy Stripper organization were made. Reporting were Mmes. Fred Pierce, treasurer; Ted Springfield, gift shop; Pete DeVriendet, vending machines; and Charles Crawford, ways and means. Mrs. Thomas Yoshida explained plans for increasing the guild membership and Mrs. Jack Hurley, arts and crafts chairman, discussed the making of objects to be used at the hospital. Mrs. Donald Houske, presented a plan to award monogrammed pens to Candy Strippers. As each girl completes 100 hours of service, a star will be engraved on the pen and when she has completed 500 hours she will be given a special pen. Membership in the Candy Strippers is open to all girls 15 years and older. Mrs. Houske may be called for information.

TORRANCE
Torrance High School PTA will meet on Wednesday, March 3, in conjunction with the school's annual Open House. The meeting will convene in the auditorium at 7:30 p.m.

Parents of 8th grade students, who will be entering Torrance High School next fall will meet at the same time in the annex cafeteria, where important matriculation information will be discussed. Senior parents also will meet at 7:30 p.m. in the main cafeteria for information relative to senior activities. Parents of 12th grade students traditionally find this to be a valuable meeting. Information regarding the senior All-Night Party at Disneyland will be provided at this meeting. Following the meetings and tour of the campus and classrooms, those attending are invited to meet in the main cafeteria for refreshments.

NORTH HIGH
Eugene McCusker, assistant principal at North High School and Robert L. Jones, music teacher, were honored for their service and outstanding contributions to youth at the February meeting of the North High PTA. Both men were presented PTA Honorary Life Membership awards by Mrs. Wilbur Van Den Hoek, Honorary Life chairman.

Mrs. Kenneth Miller presented a tribute to Founders Day. Mrs. A. B. Cowie, charter president of the North High PTA and Mrs. W. Y. Wells, junior past president, were special guests. Dr. Louis Kaplan of the Torrance Unified School District spoke on "Mental Health of our Youth."

The president-elect will be the North High PTA delegate to the State PTA Convention to be held in May at San Diego. Mrs. James Orr, Torrance Council president, and Mrs. Perry Baker, first vice president elect of Torrance Council, were also elected as delegates.

Mmes. Jack Till, Perry Baker, Marvin Richards, Elray Wittrock, and A. J. Stillwell were elected to serve on the nominating committee. Refreshments were served by the junior mothers at the conclusion of the meeting.

MEADOW PARK
At the Founders Day meeting of Meadow Park PTA on Tuesday, Feb. 16, Mrs. James Alcorn and Mrs. Tom Akiyama were presented with Honorary Life memberships. These women were honored for their work with children, PTA and the community. Members of the nominating committee were named. They are Mmes Tom Akiyama, J. Neil McKenzie, Jules Kempner, Ormel Duke, B. J. Mooneyham, R. Horne and M. Reasor.

A new chairmanship, Youth Services, was formed and Mrs. James L. Williams was selected chairman. Meadow Park PTA will have a paper drive on March 25, and all are asked to save papers. Meadow Park's Magic Show is set for April 24.

RIVIERA
At its recent Founder's Day program, Riviera PTA presented two awards to persons who have contributed significantly to the community, and have given much of their time and interest to the welfare of youth. Honorary Life Membership to PTA was presented to Mr. Robert Beach, who has worked for more than eight years for youth through Indian Guides, Y.M.C.A., Building Funds, Boy Scouts, Little League, and PTA. He is a dedicated scoutmaster, has formulated basic camping procedures used by local scouts, and is leader of Riviera Troop 719. Bob, an STL engineer, and his wife Ellen, who lives on Calle de Ricardo, are parents of four sons, two of whom are also very active in scouting, one already Eagle, and the other a Life Scout working toward Eagle.

The second award was a $25 Torrance Council Scholarship to be given in the name of Mrs. Gene Voorhees. Among the many achievements where Mrs. Voorhees has given of her time and talents are Bond Elections, Teachers Aide, "Y" Group Leader, Recreation Secretary, PTA Council, Browdie Leader, Girl Scouts, and PTA president. The Voorhees reside on Avenida Atezada with their two daughters.

FERN GREENWOOD
At its recent Founder's Day meeting, Fern-Greenwood PTA presented two Honorary Life Memberships in recognition of service to community and youth.

First to be honored was Mrs. Paul Shinoda. In addition to having served in PTA, she has been active in Little League, Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, and Girl Scouts and is also an active member in the Gardens Baptist Church. She is a model mother, wife and career woman. Second recipient was Mrs. Ellen Boos, principal at Fern-Greenwood who has done so much for all the students.

Program for the evening consisted of the first annual Follies, a skit under the direction of Mrs. M. Medvid, featuring Fern-Greenwood teachers, board members, past presidents and the Mother Singers.

Mr. Kenneth Riley, custodian, received a PTA Membership button for his friendly relationship with all the students.

BOOK TREASURES . . . The new library in North Torrance has received the whole hearted support of the Edison PTA since its opening and has received many new books as PTA gifts. This week a new set of World Book dictionaries was given to the new library. After the presentation, the PTA members browse through the book shelves to determine just what is needed for the future. On the library visit are, from left, Mmes. Melba Bommarito, librarian, Mrs. Mary Bruner, president of the Edison PTA, and Mrs. Robert Trevathan, library chairman. (Press-Herald photo)
